LAWYERS ADJOURNMENT CAUSE LIST

BACKGROUND & OBJECTIVE

- Managing and recording adjournments was handled through manual or fragmented systems.
- The manual approach made it difficult to track approved adjournments and ensure timely submission.
- A dedicated module was developed to digitally maintain adjournment records and generate accurate reports.
- The system ensures systematic tracking, approval, and reporting in coordination with the daily cause list.
- Approved adjournment records are promptly submitted to the Hon'ble Courts.

IMPACT, OUTCOME AND BENEFITS

- Adjournment records are now managed efficiently through a dedicated digital system.
- Automatic report generation ensures timely and accurate submission to courts.
- Coordination between administrative staff and the courts in scheduling was improved.
- The risk of missed or delayed adjournment submissions has been eliminated.
- Courts receive accurate adjournment records alongside the daily cause list.
- The system replaced a fragmented manual process with a reliable digital solution.
- Improved transparency and accuracy in judicial scheduling.
- Enhanced coordination between administrative offices and the Hon'ble Courts.
- Better oversight and control over the adjournment approval and submission process.
