FRAMING OF TORS FOR INTEGRATION OF JUDICIARY, POLICE, PRISONS & PROSECUTION

FRAMING OF TORS FOR INTEGRATION OF JUDICIARY, POLICE, PROSECUTION AND PRISONS

BACKGROUND & OBJECTIVE

- A Terms of Reference (TOR) document was developed to define objectives, scope, and technical requirements for integration.
- The integration aims to link the Judiciary's CMS with systems of Police, Prosecution, and Prison Departments.
- The initiative seeks to establish a unified digital framework for seamless data exchange.
- It will enable real-time information sharing and reduce duplication of records across departments.
- The TOR promotes transparency, accountability, and timely justice through interconnected workflows.

IMPACT, OUTCOME AND BENEFITS

- A formal and structured framework for inter-institutional system integration was established.
- Roles, responsibilities, and technical requirements for integration were clearly defined.
- The foundation for a unified criminal justice information system was laid.
- Technical specifications and data exchange protocols have been formally documented.
- A unified approach to criminal justice data management is being implemented.
- Greater efficiency in case processing by minimizing delays and procedural bottlenecks.
- Improved transparency and accountability at every stage of the justice process.
